FAIRFIELD COUNTY CHORALE PRESENTS: TWO NEO-CLASSIC MASTERWORKS

May 13, 2023 at 7:30pm • Norwalk Concert Hall • Norwalk, CT

We are thrilled to announce an upcoming concert featuring two stunning works of choral music: Kodály's Missa Brevis and Poulenc's Gloria, performed by the Fairfield County Chorale directed by Maestro David Rosenmeyer, soloists Inna Dukash, Malena Dayen, Pedro Sequera, and Christopher Lau.

Kodály's Missa Brevis is a powerful and moving piece that showcases the composer's skill in both choral writing and his knowledge of Hungarian folk music. The piece is a celebration of the Catholic mass, and its soaring melodies and rich harmonies are sure to captivate audiences.

Poulenc's Gloria is a dynamic and exhilarating work that combines elements of traditional sacred music with Poulenc's unique style. The piece is known for its lush harmonies and striking contrasts, and it is sure to leave a lasting impression on all who hear it.

Don't miss your chance to experience the transcendent beauty of these two incredible pieces of choral music.

This is the Fairfield County Chorale's 60th season of presenting great choral works in southwestern Connecticut. Its mission is to champion the appreciation of excellence in choral literature, performing a broad range of choral music for the benefit of the community. The Chorale is comprised of 80+ voices, and every concert is presented with a professional musicians and soloists. The FCC has presented a number of U.S. and world premieres and has performed at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center in New York, and the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C.
